

Who Can Join?

General membership is open to anyone interested in furthering the cause of affordable housing in Tennessee. Please consider joining us!

The Coalition has in place the Statewide Board of Directors as well as three regional councils, one in each Grand Division of the State. Each regional council will have a leader and administrative staff and meet quarterly – you are encouraged to attend the regional meeting closest to you. Those in the general membership will also be invited to participate on statewide committees in various areas of interest. There is one statewide meeting annually, held in conjunction with the Governor’s Housing Conference, held by Tennessee Housing Development Agency.

What are the Benefits to You?

- Receive the quarterly publication Coalition News, a clearing house for helpful housing information
- Gain access to Housing leaders and advocates
- Contribute to roundtable discussions and brainstorming sessions to improve affordable housing.

What is the Coalition?

The mission of the Tennessee Affordable Housing Coalition is to serve as a catalyst to continuously improve the availability and quality of safe, sound and affordable housing in the State of Tennessee. The group includes builders, REALTORS® lenders, not-for-profit housing providers, public housing agencies, and agencies from various governmental levels.

The goals of the coalition are as follows:

- Establish and support an active and effective network of educated stakeholders committed to understanding and addressing the needs for affordable housing in Tennessee.
- Effectively communicate and advocate the need for, and the social and economic impact of, affordable housing in Tennessee to law makers, policy makers, civic leaders, business leaders, housing providers, communities and the general public .
- Establish and maintain active partnerships with funders of affordable housing initiatives in Tennessee.

What is the Cost?

There is an annual dues of $25 to become a general member. The annual term runs from January to December , but if you pay during last quarter of year, then the next year is included.
