Tennessee Affordable Housing Coalition

Tennessee Affordable Housing Coalition

To connect, educate and advocate for housing for all Tennesseans.

What is the Coalition?

Established in 2004 as a 501(c)6, the Coalition is a network of committed housing advocates working to educate the public on the impact of available, sustainable and affordable housing on transportation, education, health and especially economic development in Tennessee communities.

The Coalition strives to:

- Connect - housing advocates to resources that ensure safe and secure housing.
- Educate - the public and legislators on what affordable housing looks like.
- Advocate - for Tennesseans who need legislative intervention on their behalf in order to have access to affordable housing.

Who Can Join?

Membership is open to anyone interested in furthering the cause of affordable housing in Tennessee.

The Coalition is led by a volunteer statewide board of directors as well as three regional councils - one in each grand division of the state. Regional councils meet quarterly. You are encouraged to attend the regional meeting closest to you.

Why Join?

- Get access to members-only content on the website, tnahc.org; which includes a quarterly newsletter, calendar of events as well as statewide updates.
- Build and strengthen your network of Tennessee housing leaders and advocates.
- Make your voice heard as we advocate for consumers of affordable housing.

How to Join?

Dues are annual with term running from January to December. If you pay in last quarter of the year, the next year is included.

Individual dues $50

City/County dues $250, allowing two representatives

Corporate dues $500, allowing three representatives from across the state.
